MANAGING MOTORSPORTS SINCE 1991

FIM MiniGP World Series - CONCEPT

It is evident that currently the initiation steps in road racing are not homogenous worldwide. This results in riders being formed in different disciplines, techniques or styles which then might end up as a disadvantage when competing against riders from different nationalities in the successive racing phases of their career. It is the intention of the FIM and Dorna to create an equal and clear initiation platform for young riders all around the world to provide the opportunity for them to be formed with the best possible path.

With the creation of the FIM MiniGP World Series, the FIM together with the National Federations and Dorna seeks to aid countries into introducing this new step that will provide riders around the globe with a unique and standardized way to begin their motorcycling career.

As can be seen in all the promotional cups, having a one-make series is key in revealing the true talent at these early stages. Therefore, one key aspect of the FIM MiniGP World Series will be the motorcycle to be used for the series, it will have to be the same for each and every country participating in the series.

FIM MiniGP World Series - CONDITIONS

The goal is to have a series of national championships across the globe that follow the same rules and conditions so as to have standardized MiniGP competitions all over the world. In this way riders from different countries will have the same formation and experience.

FIM MiniGP World Series - PROJECTION

One of the key engaging aspects of the promotional cups is their projection towards the following steps towards World Championships. This will be one of the key attractive points of the FIM MiniGP World Series as it will be included in the Road to MotoGP™ programs.

The riders participating in each of the national MiniGP cups will be offered the following opportunities:

- National & continental levels: the top riders from each national MiniGP cup will have (according to their nationality or geographic area): direct access to the ATC selection and the availability of one entry into the BTC, NTC or ETC.*
- World level: The champion of every national cup will be given the opportunity to participate in a World Final that will be take place during the week of the final MotoGP event of the season. The winner of the World Final will secure a spot in one of the Road To MotoGP programs.*

All of this together with the possibility of joining the MotoGP events will help raise the level of the riders and provide them with a clear path towards their future participation in MotoGP™.

*Subject to the rider complying with the minimum age criteria as well as nationality criteria.

FIM MiniGP World Series - SHOWCASING

Exposure of the cups is also a key element for the riders to be able to showcase their talent to scouts around the world. It is also an important factor in securing sponsors for the teams and organizers. All of the cups that form part of the FIM MotoGP World Series will be included in the Road to MotoGP programs this will provide them with exposure in the Road to MotoGP social media platforms.

For cups organized in countries that host a MotoGP or WorldSBK event (and the circuit has a go-kart track in close proximity) there will be the opportunity to organize an event of their FIM MiniGP cup during the World Championship event. This event will be given an appropriate media coverage and it will give the cup the opportunity to showcase the championship towards the MotoGP community.

The Road to MotoGP™

Dorna has been deeply involved in young rider programs since before the turn of the millennium, beginning with the FIM CEV Repsol and the Movistar Junior Cup - then going on to include initiatives such as the Red Bull MotoGP Rookies Cup and the Idemitsu Asia Talent Cup, as well as others such as Junior Talent Team, Honda British Talent Cup and Northern Talent Cup.

Road To MotoGP programs ran by Dorna:

- 1998: FIM CEV Repsol
- 1999: Movistar Activa Junior Cup
- 2007: Red Bull Rookies Cup
- 2014: Idemitsu Asia Talent Cup
- 2015: Junior Talent Team
- 2017: British Talent Team
- 2017: European Talent Cup
- 2018: Honda British Talent Cup
- 2020: Northern Talent Cup

As can be seen there is a need to create an equal and homogenous racing platform around the world to serve as a feeder series to all of the successive platforms.
