System of Golden Ribbon meeting:

Advancing meeting which has its peak in final heat. To overall classification of respective groups 2 best results out of 3 rides count.

All heats are raced with 6 riders in each of them. Rider may skip one ride in his group if he feels he has enough points to progress. In quarterfinal groups. In the quarter-final group, the track reserve can start for a rider who decides to skip the ride..

If there is a draw in respective groups following factors decide who will go further on

- a) better result from 2 counted rides
- b) better third ride which is not counted
- c) better last result from mutual clash on the track

Final heat is separately counted and results in final heats are the final standing of the whole meeting.

1) Riders are seeded into 4 Quarter-finals groups, 6 riders in each of them. In each group there are 3 programmed rides. Starting gates are changed by the riders in each ride. 3 best scorers progress to Semi-final groups.

2) Each semi-final group has 6 riders who are seeded according to given key. There are 2 rides in each group. Riders at 1st - 3rd place from each group go to Final. Both results count. In case of equal points, point b) does not apply

Protest and Appeals:

Any person or group of persons-rider, passenger, entrant, manufacturer, official, etc., recognised by the FIM and concerned by a decision taken under the authority of the FIM, may ask for redress for the consequences of that decision.

Generally, protests against the eligibility of a rider, passenger, entrant or motorcycle entered, must be made before the start of the official practice.

Protests against results must be presented to the International Jury within 30 minutes following the announcement of the results.

An appeal may be made against a decision of the International Jury to the International Disciplinary Court (CDI).

All protests to the International Jury must be made in accordance with the requirement of the Disciplinary and Arbitration Code of the FIM and be accompanied by a fee 5.000 Kč returnable if the protest is justified or forfeited if the Disciplinary body considers the protest to be groundless, or if it is withdrawn without a hearing.
